Providence, Dec. 11 --- Another Full Weekend at AS220

On Friday, Dec. 20, the new genre of performance art is to be exemplified by the solo efforts of Nancy Thompson. Through the uses of the word, lyric, melody, and digital delay, Thompson pierces the consciousness of the individual perciever; on previous encounter with her work we find the work beyond a simple classification.

AS220 welcomes the return of Steve Hurl on Saturday, the 21st for his "tape release party". Hurl has been the frequent entertainer at many local pubs, incl. Last Call, & Customs House. The original blues, in traditional style, work through the slide guitar, electric piano, and a "I am less than satisfied" vocal accompaniment.
